

EEL 3118L Laboratory 1

Credits:

~~Catalog description: EEL 3118L is a laboratory course that covers the design and construction of a digital logic circuit. The course is designed to provide students with a practical understanding of digital logic design and the use of logic simulators and logic analyzers. The course is a prerequisite for EEL 3119L.~~

Catalog description:

Prerequisites: EEL 3111

Required, elective, or selected elective:

Specific goals for the course

Specific outcomes of instruction: